

TASTE OF CHINA
LUNCH $6.29 & DINNER $8.99
SOUTH: 1000-1011 (at Hwy 28.5) - REGINA - 366-1118
Kids: Lunch 3-5 $2.99 - Kids 6-9 only $4.65
www.tasteofchina.com

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & news for 120 years

NEW MEMBERS
Hospital means 2nd year
Board members

FRIDAY APRIL 12, 2013 $5.25 (incl. GST) BEYOND THE NEWS OF $1

BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community
Regina's Liberal Party is launching a grassroots effort to mobilize the community and build a strong base of support for the party's candidates in the upcoming provincial election. The party's new grassroots program, called "Liberal 101," will focus on door-to-door canvassing, phone banking, and other community-based activities. The program is being led by party leader Brad Wall and his staff, and will involve a large number of volunteers. The party is also launching a "Liberal 101" website, which will provide information about the party's policies and candidates. The party is confident that this grassroots effort will help it win a majority government in the next provincial election.

Retreat helps establish community vision statement
A group of about 20 people from a variety of Regina-area organizations met for a weekend retreat to develop a community vision statement. The retreat was held at the Regina Golf and Country Club and was organized by the Regina Community Foundation. The vision statement, which is being developed over the course of several months, will provide a clear and concise statement of the community's values and goals. The retreat was a success, and the participants were able to reach a consensus on many of the key issues. The vision statement will be a valuable tool for the community as it works to address the challenges of the future.

City seeking volunteers to help with Easter Bunny Festival
The Regina Easter Bunny Festival is one of the city's most popular events, and the city is seeking volunteers to help with the festival. The festival is held in the city's downtown core and features a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a fireworks display. The city is looking for volunteers to help with the festival's logistics, including setting up and breaking down the festival's infrastructure. The festival is a great opportunity for people to get involved in their community and help make the festival a success.

Ray Allen to be guest speaker at Lions Club meeting Monday
Ray Allen, a former professional basketball player, will be the guest speaker at the Lions Club meeting on Monday. Allen is a well-known figure in the Regina community and has been a member of the Lions Club for many years. He will be speaking about his career in basketball and his involvement in the community. The meeting is open to all Lions Club members and is held at the Regina Lions Club building.

Lions-At-Clas Region plans meeting for Monday
The Lions-At-Clas Region is planning a meeting for Monday. The meeting is open to all Lions Club members and is held at the Regina Lions Club building. The meeting will discuss the region's activities and plans for the future. The meeting is a great opportunity for members to get involved in their community and help make a difference.

Kids try spring board members, conducting meeting Sunday
A group of kids from the Regina area are trying to become spring board members for the city's board of directors. The kids are conducting a meeting on Sunday to discuss their plans. The kids are confident that they will be successful in their efforts. The city's board of directors is looking for new members and the kids are a great candidate. The kids are a group of bright and ambitious young people who are committed to making a difference in their community.

DINOSAURS INVADING LIBERAL
A group of dinosaurs is invading the Liberal Party's headquarters in Regina. The dinosaurs are causing a lot of trouble and the Liberal Party is trying to get them out. The dinosaurs are a symbol of the Liberal Party's policies and the city is trying to get rid of them. The dinosaurs are a threat to the city and the Liberal Party is trying to get them out. The dinosaurs are a symbol of the Liberal Party's policies and the city is trying to get rid of them.

BE Liberal begins grassroots effort to mobilize community
Regina's Liberal Party is launching a grassroots effort to mobilize the community and build a strong base of support for the party's candidates in the upcoming provincial election. The party's new grassroots program, called "Liberal 101," will focus on door-to-door canvassing, phone banking, and other community-based activities. The program is being led by party leader Brad Wall and his staff, and will involve a large number of volunteers. The party is also launching a "Liberal 101" website, which will provide information about the party's policies and candidates. The party is confident that this grassroots effort will help it win a majority government in the next provincial election.

Retreat helps establish community vision statement
A group of about 20 people from a variety of Regina-area organizations met for a weekend retreat to develop a community vision statement. The retreat was held at the Regina Golf and Country Club and was organized by the Regina Community Foundation. The vision statement, which is being developed over the course of several months, will provide a clear and concise statement of the community's values and goals. The retreat was a success, and the participants were able to reach a consensus on many of the key issues. The vision statement will be a valuable tool for the community as it works to address the challenges of the future.

City seeking volunteers to help with Easter Bunny Festival
The Regina Easter Bunny Festival is one of the city's most popular events, and the city is seeking volunteers to help with the festival. The festival is held in the city's downtown core and features a variety of activities, including a parade, a concert, and a fireworks display. The city is looking for volunteers to help with the festival's logistics, including setting up and breaking down the festival's infrastructure. The festival is a great opportunity for people to get involved in their community and help make the festival a success.

Ray Allen to be guest speaker at Lions Club meeting Monday
Ray Allen, a former professional basketball player, will be the guest speaker at the Lions Club meeting on Monday. Allen is a well-known figure in the Regina community and has been a member of the Lions Club for many years. He will be speaking about his career in basketball and his involvement in the community. The meeting is open to all Lions Club members and is held at the Regina Lions Club building.

Lions-At-Clas Region plans meeting for Monday
The Lions-At-Clas Region is planning a meeting for Monday. The meeting is open to all Lions Club members and is held at the Regina Lions Club building. The meeting will discuss the region's activities and plans for the future. The meeting is a great opportunity for members to get involved in their community and help make a difference.

Kids try spring board members, conducting meeting Sunday
A group of kids from the Regina area are trying to become spring board members for the city's board of directors. The kids are conducting a meeting on Sunday to discuss their plans. The kids are confident that they will be successful in their efforts. The city's board of directors is looking for new members and the kids are a great candidate. The kids are a group of bright and ambitious young people who are committed to making a difference in their community.

DINOSAURS INVADING LIBERAL
A group of dinosaurs is invading the Liberal Party's headquarters in Regina. The dinosaurs are causing a lot of trouble and the Liberal Party is trying to get them out. The dinosaurs are a symbol of the Liberal Party's policies and the city is trying to get rid of them. The dinosaurs are a threat to the city and the Liberal Party is trying to get them out. The dinosaurs are a symbol of the Liberal Party's policies and the city is trying to get rid of them.