State explains increased employment numbers

The Wyoming Department of Workforce Services announced that the state's unemployment rate has decreased to 4.5 percent in March 2013. This is a significant improvement from the 5.5 percent rate in March 2012. The department attributes this success to a combination of factors, including a strong economy and increased hiring by businesses. For more information, visit the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services website at wyoming.gov.
