Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive is set for Saturday, May 11

The National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) is sponsoring a Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive on Saturday, May 11, from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the Lincoln Center in downtown Lincoln. The drive is open to all members of the community and is a great way to help those in need. The drive will accept all non-perishable food items, including canned soups, pasta, rice, beans, and cereal. The drive is a part of the National Association of Letter Carriers' annual Stamp Out Hunger campaign, which aims to raise awareness of hunger and provide food to those in need. State explains increased employment numbers

By the Staff of the Lincoln Journal-News
The state's unemployment rate fell to 6.1 percent in March, according to the U.S. Bureau of Economic Analysis. This is the lowest rate since 2007, when the rate was 6.2 percent. The state's economy is showing signs of recovery, with job growth in many sectors. The state's unemployment rate is one of the lowest in the nation, and this is a positive sign for the state's economy.
