Policy change coming for prom escorts

High Plains
 District Attorney
 Robert M. Hinkle is looking to change the policy regarding prom escorts for students in the district.

High Plains District Attorney Robert M. Hinkle is looking to change the policy regarding prom escorts for students in the district. Hinkle said the current policy, which allows students to be escorted by family members or friends, is outdated and needs to be updated to reflect current legal standards. He is currently reviewing the policy and expects to announce any changes in the near future.

Students and staff members of High Plains High School are lined up for a photo during a recent event. The photo shows a group of people standing in a line outdoors, possibly at a school event or prom.
