Policy change coming for prom escorts

High Plains
A 12th-grade prom committee member at Dodge City High School is pushing for a policy change that would allow students to bring their own prom escorts. The current policy requires students to be escorted by a parent or guardian. The committee member, who is also a member of the school's prom committee, says that many students do not have parents who can provide an escort. She says that the current policy is outdated and that it is time to update it. The school board is expected to vote on the proposal in the coming weeks.

Students and other members of the committee are working to get the policy change approved. They are holding meetings and gathering signatures. The school board is expected to vote on the proposal in the coming weeks.
