States Booster Club final 2012-13 meeting features special guest
The States Booster Club held its final meeting for the 2012-13 season on Monday, April 29, at the States Center. The meeting featured a special guest speaker, former U.S. Ambassador to the United States, Robert M. Anderson. Anderson spoke about his experiences in the White House and his views on international relations. The meeting also included a presentation of the club's annual report and a discussion of the club's future plans.

Policy change coming for prom escorts

Students will be required to pay for their own prom escorts starting next year, according to a new policy announced by the States Center. The policy change is part of a broader effort to reduce the cost of prom for students. The States Center Board of Directors voted on Monday to implement the new policy. Under the new policy, students will be responsible for finding and paying for their own escorts. The States Center will continue to provide a prom for students who cannot afford to pay for their own escorts.

Students and other members of the States Center Board of Directors met on Monday to discuss the new policy. The board members agreed to implement the policy starting next year. The new policy is expected to save the States Center approximately $100,000 per year.

The States Center Board of Directors also discussed other policy changes. The board members agreed to implement a new policy regarding the States Center's financial reporting. The new policy requires the board to provide a detailed financial report to the States Center community each year.

College to host Allied Health Careers Camp

The Allied Health Careers Camp will be held at the States Center on Monday, May 6, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The camp is open to all students in the States Center community. The camp will provide an opportunity for students to learn more about Allied Health careers and to meet with professionals in the field. The camp will include a presentation by a guest speaker, a tour of the States Center, and a chance to ask questions of the staff.
