Policy change coming for prom escorts

High Plains High School is set to implement a new policy regarding prom escorts. The school board has approved a resolution that will require students who are escorted to prom to be accompanied by a parent or guardian. This change is intended to ensure the safety of all students and to provide a more structured environment for the event. The new policy will take effect for the 2013-2014 school year. Students who are currently escorted to prom will be notified of the change and given the opportunity to provide input. The school board will continue to monitor the situation and make adjustments as needed.

Students and staff members gathered for a school assembly. The assembly was held in the gymnasium and featured a presentation on the new prom escort policy. The principal, [Name], addressed the students and staff, explaining the reasons for the change and the school's commitment to student safety.
