Increase in regulations cause closure of FBC daycare

By Jennifer Hinkle
The regulations established last fall for child care and day care were so strict and costly that Freedom Baptist Church's day care center had to close its doors. The church's day care center, which had been open for 15 years, was forced to shut its doors in January 2012. The church is now looking for a new location to open a new day care center.
