INCREASE IN REGULATIONS CAUSE CLOSURE OF FBC DAYCARE
By KIMBERLY HARRIS
The regulatory changes that have caused the closure of Family Child Care Center (FCC) in the city of Overland Park, Kansas, are a result of the new rules that the state has implemented. The new rules require that all daycares must meet certain standards, including having a certain number of staff members and having certain facilities. The FCC in Overland Park was unable to meet these standards and therefore had to close its doors.
