LNEA, district breeze through contract negotiations

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
LNEA, the local union representing the 1,200 employees of the Lincoln National Employees Association, has agreed to a new contract with the company. The agreement, which was reached after a brief period of negotiations, covers the period from May 1, 2013 to May 31, 2015. The new contract includes provisions for wages, benefits, and working conditions. LNEA President John Smith said the agreement is a testament to the company's commitment to its employees and the union's dedication to representing their interests.

Seward County resolution supports state's law protecting 2nd Amendment

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
Seward County commissioners have passed a resolution supporting the state's new law protecting the Second Amendment. The resolution, which was passed unanimously, states that the county supports the state's efforts to ensure the right to bear arms is protected. The new law, which was signed by Governor Jay Hotel, prohibits the state from passing laws that would infringe on the right to bear arms. The county's resolution is a clear statement of its support for the state's position.

County vows to not enforce unconstitutional laws or executive orders

By Dan Rieck, Special to the Leader-Times
Seward County commissioners have vowed not to enforce any laws or executive orders that they believe are unconstitutional. The county's position is based on the principle that the government is limited by the Constitution. The commissioners stated that they will not enforce any laws that violate the rights of citizens. This stance is a clear statement of the county's commitment to the rule of law and the protection of individual liberties.
