City approves police purchases

The City of Allegheny County has approved the purchase of 100 new police vehicles. The vehicles are expected to be delivered to the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office by the end of the year. The purchase is part of a larger effort to modernize the county's law enforcement fleet. The vehicles are expected to be more fuel-efficient and have better safety features than the current fleet.

Holder to face tough questioning at House hearing

Attorney General Eric Holder is expected to face tough questioning at a House hearing on Thursday. The hearing is part of a larger effort to investigate the Justice Department's handling of the 2009-2010 financial crisis. Holder is expected to be questioned about the department's actions during the crisis, including the release of the "Mossburn" memo. The hearing is expected to be a high-profile event, with many members of the public expected to attend.
