Alley or road?
 Alley has a street name, playgrounds later, and a long way to go

The road that will be built between the new 100th and 101st streets will be a two-lane road. It will be a street, not a highway, and it will be a road, not a highway. It will be a street, not a highway, and it will be a road, not a highway. It will be a street, not a highway, and it will be a road, not a highway.

Millions of fans will be at the stadium for the game between the Kansas City Chiefs and the Denver Broncos on Sunday, Sept. 16, 2012. The game is part of the NFL's 'Lucky 13' season.

Preserving part of Seward County's forgotten history
 Whisenand county look to save Springfield Cemetery

Whisenand County is looking to preserve a piece of its history by saving the Springfield Cemetery. The cemetery is located in Springfield, Mo., and is one of the oldest in the state. It contains the remains of many of the early settlers of the area. The county is currently in the process of raising funds to purchase the cemetery and restore it to its original state.

Students from the Springfield School District are participating in a track and field event. The boys are competing in the 100-meter dash.

The historical marker for the Springfield Cemetery is located in Springfield, Mo. It commemorates the cemetery's role in the early settlement of the area.
