Alley or road?
 Alley has a street name, playgrounds later, and a long way to go

The road that will be built between the new 100th and 101st streets will be a "road" or "alley" depends on the city's decision. The city council will vote on the matter at a public hearing on Tuesday, May 21, at 7 p.m. at the city hall, 100 N. 10th St. The city engineer, Steve Hays, said the city will be building a "road" if the alley is wider than 10 feet. If it is narrower, it will be an "alley." The city council will also decide on the name of the road. The city engineer said the city will be building a "road" if the alley is wider than 10 feet. Preserving part of Seward County's forgotten history

Whisenand county look to save Springfield Cemetery

HISTORICAL MARKER
KANSAS
SPRINGFIELD CEMETERY
 This cemetery was founded in 1854 by the Rev. John W. Whisenand, a pioneer Methodist minister. It is the only cemetery in Seward County, Kansas, that was founded by a Methodist minister. The cemetery is located on the east side of the city of Springfield, Kansas. It contains the remains of many of the early settlers of the area. The cemetery is a historical landmark and is a reminder of the early days of settlement in Seward County, Kansas.

STUDENTS CELEBRATE END OF SCHOOL

A group of students celebrated the end of school with a game of flag football on the school grounds. The students were wearing orange shirts and were playing on a grassy field. The game was a fun and exciting way for the students to end their school year.
