County looks to repair portions of courthouse roof
 By Bruce B. DeWitt
 LEXINGTON, Ky. — The county board of commissioners is looking to repair portions of the Lexington Courthouse roof that were damaged by a storm in 2007. The repair project is expected to cost about $2 million and will be completed by the end of 2013. The county board will hold a public hearing on the matter on Monday, May 20, at 7 p.m. at the Courthouse. The hearing will be held in the main auditorium. For more information, contact the Planning Office at 250-1135.
