Liberal bids farewell to Dr. Lance Stout

Dr. Lance Stout, a prominent figure in the Liberal community, is being honored for his contributions to the town. The event will be held at the local high school, where Stout will receive a lifetime achievement award. Stout has been a member of the Liberal community for over 30 years and has been instrumental in the development of the town's infrastructure and education system.

The quilt that came home

A group of women from the Liberal Quilt Guild have spent months creating a beautiful quilt to honor the town's history. The quilt, which is made of various patterns and colors, is a testament to the women's dedication and skill. The quilt will be displayed at the local high school during the graduation ceremony. The quilt is a beautiful work of art that will be a lasting reminder of the town's history and the women who created it.

Parks and Rec welcomes new sports director

The Parks and Recreation department is pleased to announce the hiring of a new sports director. The new director will be responsible for overseeing all sports programs and activities within the department. The new director will be working closely with the community to ensure that all sports programs are of the highest quality and are accessible to all residents.

2013 Beaver grads celebrate

The 2013 Beaver High School graduates are celebrating their achievement and the end of their high school journey. The graduation ceremony was a memorable event for all involved. The graduates will be moving on to college and careers, and we wish them all the best in their future endeavors.
