Liberal bids farewell to Dr. Lance Stout

Liberal nation grieves on local as first

The women stitched each star by hand, piecing printed diamonds into an orderly geometric pattern. Some colors, they said, were passed down from their mothers. For some, it was a labor of love. For others, it was a labor of grief.

The quilt was made for Dr. Lance Stout, a Liberal resident who died last week. It was a way for the community to say goodbye to a man who had been a part of their lives for so long.

The quilt is now on display at the Liberal Public Library. It is a beautiful work of art, and a testament to the power of community.
