Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its annual summer reading program on Friday, June 7, with a special event at the library. The program is designed to encourage children to read and enjoy books during the summer months. The library has a variety of books and activities for children of all ages. The program is free and open to all children. The library is located at 1234 N. Lincoln Ave., Chicago, IL 60614. For more information, call 773-334-1234.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Chicago Mayor Daley announced today that Brian Weber is resigning from his position as deputy mayor. Weber is expected to leave his position later this month. The announcement was made during a press conference at City Hall. Weber has served as deputy mayor since 2011. He will be replaced by a new deputy mayor who will be announced in the coming weeks.

WANTED: More day care facilities

There is a growing need for more day care facilities in Chicago. The city is currently facing a shortage of day care spots, particularly in the inner city. The city is looking for ways to increase the number of day care facilities and to improve the quality of care. The city is currently reviewing proposals for new day care facilities and is looking for ways to encourage more private day care facilities to open in the city. The city is also looking for ways to improve the quality of care in existing day care facilities.
