Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program on Friday, June 7, with a special event at the library. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library offers a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. The program is open to all children, regardless of their reading level. The library is located at 1234 Main St. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Local news anchor Brian Weber is set to resign from his position at the local news station later this month. Weber has been with the station for several years and has been a prominent figure in the local news community. His resignation is effective at the end of the month. The station has not yet announced a replacement for Weber.

WANTED: More day care facilities

Local parents are calling for more day care facilities in the area. The current facilities are often at capacity, making it difficult for parents to find care for their children. The local government is considering ways to increase the number of facilities, such as providing incentives for new construction. The issue is a top priority for many families in the community.
