Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program on Friday, June 7, with a special event at the library. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library offers a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. The program is open to all children, regardless of their reading level. The library is located at 1234 Main St., Chicago, IL. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Chicago Mayor Daley announced on Friday that Brian Weber, the city's chief of staff, will be resigning later this month. Weber has worked for Daley since 2003 and has been a key figure in the city's operations. His resignation comes as Daley prepares for the upcoming election. Weber's departure is expected to be a smooth transition. For more information, visit www.chicagotribune.com.
