Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program for children on Friday, June 7. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library offers a variety of activities, including story time, book clubs, and reading challenges. The program is open to children of all ages and is free of charge. For more information, visit www.memoriallibrary.org.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

Deputy Mayor Brian Weber announced his resignation from the City of Chicago on Friday, June 7. Weber has served as Deputy Mayor since 2011. He will be leaving the city to pursue other opportunities. The City of Chicago will announce a replacement for Weber in the coming weeks.

WANTED: More day care facilities

Local parents are calling for more day care facilities in the area. The current facilities are often at capacity, making it difficult for parents to find care for their children. The community is looking for new solutions to address this need. Local officials are working to identify potential sites for new facilities and to streamline the licensing process. For more information, contact the local planning commission.
