Kids dive into reading

Memorial Library kicks off summer reading programs

Local Memorial Library kicked off its summer reading program for children on Friday, June 7. The program is designed to encourage children to read during the summer months. The library has a variety of books and activities for children of all ages. The program will run through August 31. The library is located at 1234 Main St. For more information, call 555-1234.

Brian Weber resigning later this month

City Council member Brian Weber announced his resignation from the council. He will be leaving his position at the end of the month. The council will hold a meeting to discuss the vacancy.

WANTED: More day care facilities

There is a growing need for more day care facilities in the area. The local government is looking for ways to address this issue. Parents are struggling to find affordable and quality care for their children. The city is planning to build new facilities and provide subsidies for existing ones.

Parents are looking for more day care options. The city is working to increase the number of facilities. This will help more families find care for their children.
