Girl Scouts conducting food drive to help rape crisis center
The Girl Scouts of the Wichita area are conducting a food drive to help the rape crisis center at the University of Kansas Medical Center. The drive will run from June 26 to July 1. The center provides support and counseling for victims of sexual assault and their families. The drive will accept all non-perishable food items.

City seeking exemption from concealed carry law stirs up citizens, Rep Reid Petty
The City of Lawrence is seeking an exemption from the state's concealed carry law. The exemption would allow the city to prohibit the carrying of firearms in public places. This has caused controversy among citizens and state representatives. Rep Reid Petty has introduced legislation to address the issue.
