No cop, no stop
A sign on the road near the intersection of Highway 100 and Highway 101 in the town of Plains, Kan., reads "No cop, no stop." The sign is a white rectangular sign with black lettering. It is posted on the side of the road. The sign is a result of a local ordinance that prohibits police officers from stopping vehicles without a valid reason, such as a traffic violation or a safety concern. The sign is a controversial statement that has drawn attention from the media and the public.
