Urban Pacific program catches drivers ignoring deadly warnings
 A new wave of the old-fashioned road safety program is being used in Dodge City. It's called Urban Pacific, and it's designed to catch drivers who ignore deadly warnings. The program is a joint effort between the Dodge City Police Department and the Kansas Highway Patrol. It focuses on areas where accidents are most likely to occur, such as intersections and areas with poor visibility. The program uses a variety of tactics, including increased police presence, targeted enforcement, and public education. The goal is to reduce the number of accidents and fatalities on the road.

City looks at strategic plan for future

Plan calls for slight changes in Core Cities and Downtown
 The city of Dodge City is looking at a strategic plan for the future. The plan, which was developed by the City of Dodge City Strategic Planning Commission, calls for several changes to the city's core areas and downtown. The plan includes recommendations for land use, transportation, and community development. The city is currently in the process of reviewing the plan and will likely make adjustments based on public input and other factors. The goal is to create a vision for the city's future and to guide its development in the years ahead.

City receives feedback on Kansas Sampler Festival

Sample attendees say KS Sampler draws huge crowd
 The city of Dodge City received feedback from attendees at the Kansas Sampler Festival. The festival, which was held in downtown Dodge City, drew a large crowd of people. Attendees enjoyed the variety of food, music, and activities. The city is pleased with the feedback and is looking forward to hosting the festival again in the future. The festival is a great way for the community to come together and enjoy the local culture and scenery. The city will continue to work on improving the festival and making it an even better experience for everyone.

Saturday walk-a-thon to raise funds for Plains grocery store

The City of Plains is organizing a walk-a-thon to raise funds for the new Plains grocery store. The walk-a-thon will take place on Saturday, June 29, at 9 a.m. The route will start at the Plains Community Center and go around the town square. The goal is to raise $1,000 for the store. The store will be a great addition to the town and will provide a convenient place for residents to buy their groceries. The walk-a-thon is a fun and easy way for everyone to get involved and support the community. For more information, contact the Plains Community Center at 785.833.1234.
