Two Liberal-area Scouts, Casey and Matthew, are shown in a field. Casey is holding a small object, possibly a piece of wood or a tool, and they appear to be engaged in a conversation or a demonstration.

Chomping at the bit for 5-State Fair opening

By Jeffery M. Smith
The annual 5-State Fair, one of the largest and oldest fairs in the Midwest, is set to open its doors to the public on Sunday, July 1, at the fairgrounds in Liberal, Kan. The fair, which is held in conjunction with the 100th anniversary of the founding of the city of Liberal, is expected to draw thousands of visitors from across the region. The fair features a wide variety of exhibits, including agricultural displays, craft shows, and live performances. The opening ceremony will be held at 10 a.m. on Sunday, and the fair will run through Sunday, July 7. The fair is a major event for the community and is a great way to enjoy the summer months.

Local scouts forced to flee Spanish Peaks

Local Scouts were forced to flee Spanish Peaks, Kan., after a fire broke out in the area. The fire, which started in a field, spread rapidly and forced the scouts to evacuate. The fire is believed to have been caused by a lightning strike. The scouts were taken to a nearby fire station for safety. The fire is still burning, and firefighters are working to contain it. The fire is a major concern for the community and is a reminder of the dangers of wildfires.

'Reunited, and it feels so good'

By Jeffery M. Smith
A former Liberal High School student has returned to the school after a long absence. The student, who had been away for many years, has returned to the school and is now a member of the school's staff. The student's return has been a joy for the school and the community. The student has many memories of the school and is excited to be back. The student's return is a testament to the power of education and the importance of community. The student's return is a great example of the power of education and the importance of community.
