Historical society debuts new exhibit celebrating a supermarket pioneer

By KERRY KELLY
Times Staff Writer
The Seward County Historical Society will hold an exhibit celebrating the life of a pioneer in the supermarket industry. The exhibit will be held at the Seward County Courthouse.

The exhibit will feature a collection of historical documents, including a newspaper clipping from the 1920s. The clipping is titled 'IDEA' and discusses the concept of a supermarket. It mentions that the idea was first conceived by a man named Clarence King, who is credited with the invention of the supermarket.
