City bids farewell to public works director Joe Sealey

By MICHAEL COLEMAN
The Liberal City Council has bid farewell to Joe Sealey, the city's public works director, after a career of 12 years. Sealey, 52, was hired in 2001 and served as the city's public works director until his resignation on June 30. During his tenure, Sealey oversaw the city's public works department, which is responsible for maintaining the city's infrastructure, including streets, bridges, and parks. Sealey was a dedicated professional and a valued member of the city's staff. He will be missed by his colleagues and the community.

Local youth learn self-confidence, self-esteem in 4-H Shooting Sports Club

By MICHAEL COLEMAN
The 4-H Shooting Sports Club is providing a unique opportunity for local youth to learn marksmanship and develop self-confidence and self-esteem. The club, which is part of the 4-H program, offers instruction in various shooting sports, including trap, skeet, and target shooting. The club's activities are designed to be fun and educational, and they provide a safe environment for youth to learn and grow. The club's members are encouraged to participate in local and regional competitions, and they are provided with the necessary equipment and support. The club's success is a testament to the dedication and hard work of its members and staff.

Bob's Diner comes back to life, provides trip back in time

By MICHAEL COLEMAN
Bob's Diner has reopened its doors, providing a nostalgic trip back in time for the Liberal community. The diner, which was a popular spot in the 1950s and 1960s, has been restored to its original glory and is now serving up classic diner fare. The diner's menu includes a variety of classic dishes, including burgers, fries, and milkshakes. The diner's atmosphere is warm and inviting, and it provides a great place for families and friends to gather and enjoy a meal. The diner's reopening is a welcome addition to the Liberal community and a reminder of the town's rich history.
