City bids farewell to public works director Joe Sealey
By MICHAEL COLEMAN

When Joe Sealey leaves his post as director of the city's public works department, he will be leaving behind a legacy of hard work and dedication. Sealey has been with the city for over 20 years, and his leadership has been instrumental in the success of the department. He will be missed by his colleagues and the community.

Local youth learn self-confidence, self-esteem in 4-H Shooting Sports Club
By MICHAEL COLEMAN

At the 4-H Shooting Sports Club, young people are learning more than just marksmanship. They are also learning valuable life skills such as self-confidence, self-esteem, and teamwork. The club provides a safe and supervised environment where youth can enjoy the sport of shooting while developing important character traits.

Bob's Diner comes back to life, provides trip back in time
By MICHAEL COLEMAN

Bob's Diner has reopened its doors, offering a nostalgic dining experience for locals and visitors alike. The diner's menu and atmosphere are a throwback to the classic American diner of the mid-20th century. It's a place where you can enjoy a hearty meal and reminisce about the good old days.
