City bids farewell to public works director Joe Sealey

By MICHAEL COLEMAN
The Liberal Jayhawk League game was a fitting send-off for Joe Sealey, Liberal's public works director, as he prepared to leave the city to pursue a new career opportunity. Sealey, who has worked for the city for over 20 years, was a key figure in the city's infrastructure development. He will be missed by his colleagues and the community.

New generation of trap shooters step up and Take aim

At the Liberal Jayhawk League game, the new generation of trap shooters is stepping up. The Liberal Shooting Sports Club is providing a platform for these young athletes to showcase their skills. The club's members are proud to support the next generation of shooters.

Local youth learn self-confidence, self-esteem in 4-H Shooting Sports Club

Local youth are learning self-confidence and self-esteem through the 4-H Shooting Sports Club. The club provides a safe and supervised environment for children to learn marksmanship. Through regular practice and instruction, the youth are gaining valuable life skills and confidence.
