Some residents will no longer be eligible for transportation services
By STEVEN COVATTA
Elkhart, N.J. — A change in the rules for the Elkhart Transit Authority's (ETA) bus service will affect some residents who currently receive transportation services. The change is part of a new contract with the county and will take effect in the fall. The new contract will require that all bus riders be at least 18 years old and have a valid driver's license. This will affect some elderly and disabled residents who currently receive transportation services through the ETA.
