

Vacation begins when Dad says, "I know a short cut."
Thursday Prime Rib
 44 Village Plaza • Liberal, KS 67342-4610 • Monday - Saturday
 RILEY'S BLUE BUCK BAR, VETERAN AMERICA & BEEF RESTAURANT & TAVERN STRAIGHT

FAIR BOOK
 For those entering items in this year's 5-State Fair, the entry times, dates and rules are in the new fair book available today at the K-State Extension office at 1081 Stadium Blvd.

LEADER & TIMES
 Your daily news & views for 127 years

WEDNESDAY JULY 10, 2013 11

liberalks.com
High Plains
DOWNLOADS

New school board members, directors begin work

Meeting sets course for 2013-14 school year
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — The Liberal School District board of directors met for its first meeting on Tuesday, July 9, to set the course for the 2013-14 school year. The meeting was held in the district's new administrative building at 1081 Stadium Blvd. in Liberal. Board members included newly elected members and returning members. The meeting was presided over by Superintendent Rick Anderson. The board discussed the district's budget, personnel matters, and other administrative issues. The meeting was open to the public and was held in a professional and collaborative atmosphere.

City discusses robotics grant, bids farewell to Joe Seakley

CITY DISCUSSES
robotics grant, bids farewell to Joe Seakley
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — The Liberal City Council met on Tuesday, July 9, to discuss a grant for a robotics program and to bid farewell to Joe Seakley. The council discussed a grant from the Kansas State Department of Education for a robotics program at the Liberal High School. The grant would be used to purchase equipment and provide training for students. The council also discussed the resignation of Joe Seakley, who has served as the city's mayor for several years. The council expressed their appreciation for his service and leadership. The meeting was held in the city council chamber and was open to the public.

THURSDAY
Show off that antique tractor during the Sevier County 5-State Fair
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — The Sevier County 5-State Fair is set to begin on Thursday, July 11, at the Sevier County Fairgrounds in Sevier, Mo. The fair will feature a variety of exhibits, including antique tractors, and will run through Sunday, July 14. The fair is a popular event in the region and attracts thousands of visitors each year. The fair is open to the public and is held in a beautiful setting. The fair is a great opportunity to see some of the best antique tractors in the country. The fair is also a great opportunity to see some of the best exhibits in the region. The fair is a must-see event for anyone interested in antique tractors or the history of the region.

Cinderella to work its magic July 27
 Registrations for business camp open until Monday

Registrations for business camp open until Monday
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — Registrations for the business camp are open until Monday, July 8. The camp is a two-day event held at the Liberal High School. The camp is designed for students who are interested in business and entrepreneurship. The camp will feature a variety of activities, including guest speakers, workshops, and networking opportunities. The camp is a great opportunity for students to gain hands-on experience in the business world. The camp is also a great opportunity for students to meet and network with other business-minded students. The camp is a must-see event for anyone interested in business and entrepreneurship. The camp is open to all students who are interested in business and entrepreneurship. The camp is a great opportunity for students to gain hands-on experience in the business world. The camp is also a great opportunity for students to meet and network with other business-minded students. The camp is a must-see event for anyone interested in business and entrepreneurship. The camp is open to all students who are interested in business and entrepreneurship.

Fair's 4-H, open exhibits moving back into remodeled Ag Building this year

Fair's 4-H, open exhibits moving back into remodeled Ag Building this year
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — The 4-H and open exhibits at the Sevier County 5-State Fair will be moving back into the remodeled Ag Building this year. The exhibits have been housed in the old Ag Building for many years, but the building was in need of renovation. The building has now been completely remodeled and is ready for use. The exhibits will be moved back into the building on Thursday, July 11. The exhibits will include a variety of 4-H projects, including livestock, poultry, and horticulture. The exhibits will be open to the public and will be a great opportunity to see some of the best 4-H projects in the region. The exhibits are a must-see event for anyone interested in 4-H or the history of the region.

CALL TODAY
Angels for Animals to help pay adoption, neutering costs this week through Friday
 The Liberal Animal Shelter is offering a special promotion for the week of July 8-12. The shelter is offering a $10 discount on adoption and neutering costs for all animals adopted during this time. The shelter is also offering a $5 discount on neutering costs for all animals neutered during this time. The promotion is a great opportunity for anyone looking to adopt a pet or neuter their pet. The shelter is a great resource for anyone interested in animal care. The shelter is open to the public and is located at 1081 Stadium Blvd. in Liberal. The shelter is a must-see event for anyone interested in animal care. The shelter is a great resource for anyone interested in animal care. The shelter is open to the public and is located at 1081 Stadium Blvd. in Liberal. The shelter is a must-see event for anyone interested in animal care. The shelter is a great resource for anyone interested in animal care.

UNTIL FRIDAY

© 2013 SEVIER COUNTY PUBLISHING LLC