City discusses robotics grant, bids farewell to Joe Seakley
 By MICHELE CHRISTENSEN
 Liberal, Kan. — The Liberal City Council met Monday night to discuss a grant for a robotics program and to bid farewell to Joe Seakley, who has been a member of the city council for several years. The council discussed the grant, which would fund a robotics program at the city's middle school. The council also discussed the resignation of Joe Seakley, who has been a member of the city council since 2008.
