 Relationship prepares Big and Little Sisters to travel out

Monday, July 8, 2013
 Monday, July 8, 2013, was a special day for the Big and Little Sisters of the United Way. The girls spent the day together, and the Big Sister, who is a volunteer, took the Little Sister to the beach. They had a great time, and the Big Sister was able to show the Little Sister how to have fun. The girls are both very happy, and the Big Sister is proud of her Little Sister.

City hears requests from not-for-profits
 The City of Water House is currently reviewing requests from not-for-profit organizations for day-care facilities. The requests are for facilities that would serve children from 0 to 5 years of age. The City is currently reviewing the requests and will be making a decision in the next few weeks. The City is interested in hearing from the organizations and will be holding public hearings on the requests.
