

TASTE OF CHINA
LUNCH $6.29 & DINNER $8.99
KIDS LUNCH 2-5 $2.99 • KIDS 6-9 ONLY $4.95

Kansas man convicted of kicking girlfriend to death

WICHITA, Kan. — A Kansas man who kicked his girlfriend to death was sentenced to life in prison with the possibility of parole after a jury found him guilty of first-degree murder.

The man, 34, was charged with the murder of his 26-year-old girlfriend, who was found dead in a wooded area near their home in December 2011. The man had a long history of domestic violence against his girlfriend.

The judge sentenced the man to life in prison with the possibility of parole after 25 years. The man's attorney said he will appeal the sentence.

LEADER & TIMES

WICHITA, KAN., JULY 12, 2013

FRIDAY JULY 12, 2013

Volume 124, Issue 154

Yearly subscription $1

COLLAPSE IN 5TH
Base Jays give up 8 in 5th as loss looms

Baseball fans in Wichita were treated to a dramatic collapse in the fifth inning of a game between the Kansas City Royals and the Wichita State Shockers.

The Royals were leading 2-1 in the top of the fifth when the Shockers scored three runs to tie the game. In the bottom of the fifth, the Shockers scored eight runs to take a 5-2 lead.

The Royals' pitcher, James Shields, was charged with a no-hitter but was unable to complete it due to the Shockers' comeback.

27 GARAGE SALES LISTED INSIDE TODAY

Check out the list of garage sales in your area today.

DOWNLOADS

Check out the latest news and information.

MDA to round up 'jailbirds'

WICHITA, Kan. — The state's largest mental health organization is planning to round up about 1,000 people with mental health issues who are currently in jail.

The Mental Health Association (MDA) is working with the state's Department of Corrections to identify and provide services for these individuals.

The MDA says that many of these individuals have mental health conditions that require treatment, but they are currently in jail because they cannot afford legal representation.

Report: Long Wichita standoff ends, suspect dead

WICHITA, Kan. — A long standoff in Wichita between police and a suspect ended with the suspect's death.

The suspect, 34-year-old James Earl Ray, was shot and killed by police officers during the standoff. The suspect had been armed with a handgun.

The standoff began on July 10 and lasted for several hours. Police officers were positioned around the suspect's vehicle, and the suspect refused to surrender.

Bridge project resumes on U.S. 56 in Hall County

Construction work on the bridge project in Hall County has resumed.

Ballers star out July, I need you to do what I do

Baseball players are starting to get into their summer routines.

Photo: Photographer charged after flying over festival

A photographer was charged with a crime after flying a drone over a festival.

PROJECT UNDERWAY

Construction work is underway on various projects.

Make your way to 'Chicago'

Check out the new production of the musical 'Chicago'.

Photographer charged after flying over festival

A photographer was charged with a crime after flying a drone over a festival.

K-State Extension to offer diabetes management classes

K-State Extension is offering classes on diabetes management.

Remember drive-in movies?

Check out the drive-in movie experience.

Photographer charged after flying over festival

A photographer was charged with a crime after flying a drone over a festival.

REGISTER NOW

Sign up for the upcoming event.

Remember drive-in movies?

Check out the drive-in movie experience.

Photographer charged after flying over festival

A photographer was charged with a crime after flying a drone over a festival.

TODAY

Check out the news for today.

Remember drive-in movies?

Check out the drive-in movie experience.

Photographer charged after flying over festival

A photographer was charged with a crime after flying a drone over a festival.

