Hay bales ignite on Bluebell Road

5,200 hay bales, 20 truck loads of tires still burning east of Liberal

LIBERAL, Kan. (The Leader & Times) — A massive fire at a hay storage facility east of Liberal, Kan., has burned for several days, with firefighters still working to contain the blaze. The fire, which started on Sunday, July 14, is believed to have been caused by a lightning strike. The facility, located on Bluebell Road, stores approximately 5,200 hay bales and 20 truck loads of tires. The fire has produced thick black smoke that has been visible from miles away. Firefighters from several departments, including the Liberal Fire Department and the Kansas State Fire Marshal, are working to contain the fire. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans are set to vote on a bill that would cut federal spending on food stamps by $1.5 billion over the next five years. The bill, known as the Budget Control Act, is part of a larger effort to reduce the federal deficit. The cuts would affect about 20 million people who rely on food stamps for their daily meals. The bill is expected to pass in the House, but it faces significant opposition in the Senate. The cuts are part of a broader effort to reduce federal spending and to address the growing national debt.
