Hay bales ignite on Bluebell Road
 A massive fire broke out on Bluebell Road east of Liberal on Sunday, with firefighters battling a blaze that has consumed 5,200 hay bales and 20 truck loads of tires. The fire, which started around 10 a.m., is still burning as of 7 p.m. Firefighters from Liberal and surrounding areas are working to contain the fire, which is producing thick black smoke that is visible from miles away. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program
 The House of Representatives is expected to vote on a bill that would cut funding for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) by 10 percent over the next five years. The bill is part of a larger effort to reduce federal spending and is expected to pass in the coming weeks.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains
 The annual Bazaar Days event in Liberal is set to begin on Saturday, July 13. The event features a variety of vendors, including local artisans, farmers, and businesses. There will also be live music, food, and a children's area. The event is free and open to the public.
