Hay bales ignite on Bluebell Road

LPT Hayco and another fire from the night of July 13 are the result of a fire that started in a field of hay bales on Bluebell Road east of Liberal. The fire, which started in the early morning hours of July 13, spread quickly and was out of control by the time it was discovered. The fire burned for several hours before being extinguished by firefighters from the Liberal Fire Department. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

WASHINGTON — The House of Representatives is expected to vote on a bill that would cut funding for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) by 10 percent over the next five years. The bill is part of a larger effort to reduce federal spending and is expected to be passed by the House in the coming weeks.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains

Despite the stereotype of a yard sale, the 2013 Bazaar Days in the heart of Liberal, Kansas, is offering more than just bargains. The event, which runs from July 13 to 14, features a variety of activities, including live music, a silent auction, and a raffle. The proceeds from the event will go to support local charities and community programs.
