Hay bales ignite on Bluebell Road

LFI flames and smoke rise from the hay bales in the north end of Blue Bell Road in Liberal. A fire started by a tractor in the field of hay bales on Blue Bell Road in Liberal, Kan., on Saturday night, quickly spread to the bales and ignited. The fire, which was contained to the field, burned for about an hour before firefighters arrived. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

5,200 hay bales, 20 truck loads of tires still burning east of Liberal

Hay bales and tires are still burning in a field east of Liberal, Kan., on Saturday. The fire, which started on Saturday night, is still burning as of Sunday morning. Firefighters are working to contain the fire, but it has spread to a large area of hay bales and tires. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

Republicans in the U.S. House of Representatives are expected to vote on a bill that would cut funding for the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP). The bill is part of a larger effort to reduce federal spending. The program provides food assistance to millions of low-income Americans.
