Hay bales ignite on Bluebell Road

LPT Hayco and another fire from the night of July 13 are the result of a fire that started in a field of hay bales on Bluebell Road east of Liberal. The fire, which started in the early morning hours of July 13, spread quickly and was out of control by the time firefighters arrived. The fire destroyed several hay bales and caused significant damage to the surrounding area. The cause of the fire is still under investigation.

Republicans to tackle cuts in food stamp program

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republicans on Friday said they will introduce legislation to cut the federal food stamp program by 10 percent over the next five years. The bill would also require states to match the federal funding cuts. The program, known as SNAP, provides food assistance to millions of low-income Americans.

Bazaar Days to offer more than just bargains

Despite drought conditions and the uncertainty over an oil price surge, Bazaar Days is offering more than just bargains. The event, which runs from July 13 to 15, features a variety of activities, including live music, dance performances, and a parade. The organizers hope to attract a large crowd of visitors to the area.
