Former Liberal resident shares her message of healing hope
Lorena Pineda, a former resident of the Liberal Correctional Institute, shares her message of healing hope. She says that all who are in there are not bad people, but they are in there because they need help. She says that she has seen many people who have been in there for years and years, and she says that she has seen many people who have been in there for a long time. She says that she has seen many people who have been in there for a long time, and she says that she has seen many people who have been in there for a long time.
