Plans for wind farm put on hold

Plans for a wind farm in the area of the former coal mine have been put on hold. The project, which was expected to be completed by late 2013, has been delayed due to various factors. The wind farm is located in a scenic area and is expected to provide clean energy to the region. The project was initially approved by the local government, but it has since been put on hold. The reasons for the delay are not yet clear, but it is expected that the project will be resumed in the future.
