Plans for wind farm put on hold

Plans for a wind farm in the area of the former Liberal Correctional Centre have been put on hold. The Liberal government has decided to postpone the project until a later date. The project was originally planned to be completed by the end of 2012, but the decision to postpone it has caused a significant delay. The project was intended to provide a source of renewable energy for the area and to create jobs for the local community. The decision to postpone it has caused a significant delay in the project's completion.
