Grace provides day care solution
By Robert Wells
The new Grace Day Care Center in Coronado is set to open in August, providing a much-needed day care solution for the community. The center will be located at 1000 N. Main St. in Coronado and will have 120 slots for children ages 2 to 5. The center is being built by Grace Community Church and is set to be completed by the end of the year. The center will be open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and will have a staff of 12 teachers and 10 support staff. The center will be open to children of all faiths and will have a focus on providing a high-quality education and care for children. The center will also have a kitchen and a play area. The center is set to be the first of several day care centers to be built in the area.
