Grace provides day care solution
By Robert Wells
The new Grace Day Care Center in Coronado is a much-needed addition to the community, providing a safe and secure environment for young children. The center is located in a historic building and offers a variety of activities and programs for children of all ages. The center is open from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. and is open to children of all ethnicities and religions. The center is a great option for parents who are looking for a high-quality day care center for their children.

Opinion: We should fix the law for Grand Jurors in every county. The current law is outdated and needs to be updated. Grand Jurors are an important part of the justice system and their role should be clearly defined. We need to ensure that Grand Jurors are properly trained and that their decisions are based on the facts of the case. We need to ensure that Grand Jurors are not subject to undue pressure or influence. We need to ensure that Grand Jurors are able to make their decisions without fear of retribution. We need to ensure that Grand Jurors are able to make their decisions without fear of public opinion. We need to ensure that Grand Jurors are able to make their decisions without fear of political pressure. We need to ensure that Grand Jurors are able to make their decisions without fear of any other external influence.
