Soroptimists crown Cheyenne

Cheyenne Mohler smiles as she is crowned the 2013 Five State Fair Queen Saturday evening by the Soroptimist Club at the fairgrounds prior to the opening night of the stock car races, which will conclude tonight with the fair champions being determined. Mohler is very familiar with the fair queen duties, as she was involved with 4-H for years and always participated in the fair.For more photos of days two and three at the fair, see PAGE 4.

Casey Donahew Band lights up the crowd last March at Jayco Pavilion Auditorium during the Country Concert Series. The band will return to Liberal Thursday night for a concert in front of the grandstands at the Five State Fair.
