A large group of people gathered in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church of Columbus for a Gospel Songfest service on Thursday night. The church was filled with people of various ages, some looking towards the front where a stage is visible.

Survey says community cares most about security, safety
A new survey conducted by the Columbus Dispatch and the Columbus Chamber of Commerce shows that security and safety are the top concerns of the Columbus community. The survey, which was conducted in July, found that 68 percent of respondents cited security and safety as their top concern, followed by the economy and education. The survey also found that 72 percent of respondents believe that the Columbus community is doing a good job of addressing these concerns.

'DUCKY' GETS SQUEAKY CLEAN
The Columbus Chamber of Commerce's Duck Festival is back in town, and this year's duck is 'Ducky'. Ducky is a large inflatable duck wearing sunglasses and a hat, sitting on a chair. The duck is yellow and has a sign on its chest that says 'DUCKY' GETS SQUEAKY CLEAN'.
