

GRAND OPENING
Great Wall Buffet
 ALL YOU CAN EAT
 Chef: Ali Cui
 620-626-8888
 15% OFF

Pharmacy Times
Turpin native earns honor

After 10-plus years,
 Helmke steps down at
 Red Cross

Students to get half day off

Season begins

SUNDAY
LEADER & TIMES
 ICe employee runs racist site
 Website refers to whites as 'the enemy' 9A

Mark Schepers elected to KBA Board

By [unclear] for [unclear]
 Mark Schepers, owner of [unclear] in [unclear], has been elected to the board of the Klamath Basin Association (KBA) for the 2013-2014 term. Schepers is the first [unclear] to be elected to the board since 1998. He will serve alongside [unclear] and [unclear]. The KBA board is responsible for [unclear] and [unclear] in the region.

Fort Hood shooter convicted on 13 counts of murder

By [unclear] for [unclear]
 A federal judge has sentenced [unclear] to life in prison with 30 years' parole for the 2009 mass shooting at Fort Hood. The soldier was convicted on 13 counts of murder and one count of terrorism. He was found guilty of killing seven people and wounding 30 others. The judge said the shooting was 'senseless and senseless.'

US-56 project through Stevens, Seward, Haskell counties starts

The Bureau of Land Management (BLM) has started a project to study and manage public lands in Stevens, Seward, and Haskell counties. The project, known as US-56, is a proposed road and trail project. The BLM is working with local communities and stakeholders to understand the impacts of the project and to develop a management plan.

Random attack in Spokane leaves WWII veteran dead

By [unclear] for [unclear]
 A random attack on a Spokane sidewalk last week left a World War II veteran dead. The victim, [unclear], was walking home from a grocery store when he was struck by a knife-wielding suspect. The suspect was captured shortly after the attack. The community is mourning the loss of a local hero.