

TASTE of CHINA
FAST IN THE CARRY-OUT

CELEBRATE ALL WEDNESDAYS
100% OFF
LUNCH & DINNER 5:00 PM - 10:00 PM
Dinner - 5:00 PM to 10:00 PM • Wednesday - 5:00 PM to 10:00 PM
100% OFF
LUNCH & DINNER 5:00 PM - 10:00 PM
100% OFF
LUNCH & DINNER 5:00 PM - 10:00 PM

TALES
County tax on utilities?
By Susan Orloff
A change in utility bills for some residents in the Denver area may be on the way. The Colorado Public Utilities Commission has approved a new rule that would allow utilities to charge a small fee for the cost of providing service to customers who do not use the service.

MILE HIGH
Colorado dogs getting on owner's marijuana
Page 3A
A pug puppy named Miley is the latest in a line of dogs that have been found with traces of marijuana in their systems. The dog's owner, a woman from Denver, says she has never smoked marijuana and that the dog is not around any marijuana.

City fills CVB board
By Debra Karp
The City of Denver has filled the vacant seats on the Colorado Valley Board of Commerce. The board is responsible for promoting economic development in the region.

Kennedy Center honors Carlos Santana
Page 8A
The Kennedy Center has named Carlos Santana as its 2013 honoree. Santana is a multi-instrumentalist and has been a major force in the development of Latin rock.

Students to read Constitution Saturday, public invited
The Public and the Citizens' Public Center of the University of Colorado Denver is sponsoring a reading of the Constitution on Saturday. The event is open to the public and will be held at the Public and the Citizens' Public Center.

Would you board flight 666 to HEL?
By Susan Orloff
A flight attendant on a flight from Denver to Los Angeles was asked to board a flight that was labeled "666 to HEL." The flight attendant, who is a member of the union, says she was told to board the flight because the plane was overbooked.

Mass. high school ends powderpuff football game
By Susan Orloff
A high school in Massachusetts has ended its powderpuff football game. The game, which was a tradition for many years, was deemed to be too dangerous and was replaced by a non-contact game.

Kan. program graduates find ways out of poverty
By Greg Deery
A program in Kansas has helped graduates find ways out of poverty. The program, which is run by a local organization, provides job training and financial counseling to people who are struggling.

Mom upset daughter wasn't allowed to write about God
By Susan Orloff
A mother in Kansas is upset that her daughter was not allowed to write about God in a school assignment. The mother says that her daughter was told that writing about God was not appropriate for a school assignment.

Mike's farewell
Page 3A
A farewell event for Mike was held at the local community center. Mike was a long-time member of the center and was well-loved by everyone who knew him.

LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & views for $27.95/week