

Few women admit their ego. Few men act theirs.
Thursday Prime 8 1/2
A Village Place in Liberty, KS • 620-242-4400 • www.villageplace.com
FREE TO SHOW HOME AND VIRTUAL TOURS. OPEN HOUSE: 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM

Young professionals LYP into action
"Young professionals are a diverse group of individuals who are just getting started in their careers. They are looking for a community that can help them grow and thrive. The LYP group is a perfect fit for them. We offer a variety of events and activities that are designed to help them connect with others and build a strong network. We also offer a variety of educational and professional development opportunities that can help them advance in their careers. We are a supportive and inclusive community that is always looking for ways to help our members succeed. Join us today and see for yourself why we are the perfect fit for young professionals like you!"
Photo: [Image of a woman]

Baker Arts to offer 'Put on Your Face'
The Baker Arts Center is offering a new class called "Put on Your Face." This class is designed to help people learn how to apply makeup for different occasions. The class will be taught by a professional makeup artist and will cover topics such as skin care, color theory, and application techniques. The class is open to all ages and skill levels. Registration is required and space is limited. For more information, contact the Baker Arts Center at [phone number].

TOP SHOT Lady Reddions get sweep
Lady Reddions, a group of young women who are passionate about horse riding, recently won the "TOP SHOT" award at the annual horse show. The award was given to them for their exceptional performance in the show jumping competition. The group consists of several members who have been training together for several years. They are proud of their achievement and look forward to continuing to improve their skills in the future.

HUMP DAAAAAAAY! Adopt-A-Duck
WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 18, 2013
LEADER & TIMES
Your daily news & more for 12¢
Chance to win a share of $10,000 Page 2A

KBI investigating incident involving Kansas sheriff
The Kansas Bureau of Investigation (KBI) is investigating an incident involving a Kansas sheriff. The incident occurred on [date] in [location]. The KBI is currently reviewing the details of the incident and has not yet reached a conclusion. The sheriff involved in the incident is [name]. The KBI is committed to ensuring the integrity of the law enforcement profession and will continue to investigate the matter thoroughly.

Hutchinson regional hospital settles federal allegations of Medicare false claims
Hutchinson Regional Medical Center (HRMC) has settled federal allegations of Medicare false claims. The settlement was reached after a federal investigation found that HRMC had submitted false claims to Medicare. HRMC has agreed to pay a fine and to implement measures to prevent such claims from being submitted in the future. The settlement is a significant step towards ensuring the integrity of the Medicare program and protecting the interests of Medicare beneficiaries.

Topeka expands anti-discrimination ordinance
The City of Topeka has expanded its anti-discrimination ordinance to include additional categories of protected individuals. The new ordinance prohibits discrimination based on race, ethnicity, gender, and sexual orientation. This expansion is a positive step towards creating a more inclusive and equitable community for all residents. The ordinance will be enforced by the city's human resources department.

Kan. Salvation Army heads to Colorado
The Kansas Salvation Army is preparing to move its headquarters to Colorado. The move is being made to better serve the needs of the state's growing population and to expand the organization's outreach efforts. The new headquarters will be located in [location] and will provide a central base of operations for the organization's various programs and services. The move is expected to be completed by [date].

Democrat Davis enters Kan. governor race
Democrat [Name] has entered the race for Governor of Kansas. Davis is a prominent figure in the state and has a strong record of public service. He is running for office to continue to serve the people of Kansas and to address the state's most pressing issues. Davis is currently a member of the Kansas State Senate and has held several other positions of leadership. He is committed to promoting economic growth, improving education, and protecting the environment.