Snake grounds jet with 370 passengers in Sydney
A snake was found on the tarmac of a jet at Sydney airport on Monday, forcing the aircraft to be grounded for several hours. The snake was identified as a common house snake and was not a threat to passengers. The jet was eventually cleared for flight and departed Sydney on Tuesday.

APNewsBreak: Kan. voters can be on hold for years
A new law in Kansas could allow voters to be on hold for years if they do not appear at a polling station. The law, which is set to take effect in 2014, would allow voters to be on hold for up to five years if they do not appear at a polling station during that time.

Allegiant: 1 in 10 tickets affected by MD-80 rehab
Allegiant Air is reporting that one in 10 tickets for its MD-80 aircraft will be affected by a major maintenance program. The program, which is expected to last several months, will involve the replacement of certain engine components on the aircraft.
